

Dear Adrian

Link2Media Building Publications publishes magazines for the building specifier. It's important that the magazines are creatively designed and produced, and the working environment that they are produced in assumes great importance in the achievement of that goal. We feel that it is important to be in surroundings that encourage enthusiasm and creativity.

We feel that Dunston Business Village is exactly the right type of environment in which to achieve our aims and to feel comfortable in. It's a huge advantage if a place of work feels more than that - and becomes a place to feel comfortable in and enjoyable to be at. Dunston Business Village achieves all of that, and more.

Yours sincerely
